

Health assessments in general practice for clinical staff

Join us for an informative session on health assessments in primary care and expand your knowledge on a variety of topics. Gain knowledge about the screening tools available for common chronic conditions, enabling early detection and effective management.

Session information

This engaging event aims to enhance your understanding of health assessments in primary healthcare. Expand your knowledge and improve your practice.

Learning outcomes

- identify the different types of health assessments in primary healthcare
- differentiate between Medicare item numbers for health assessments
- list screening tools available for common chronic conditions.

What will be covered

- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander health assessments
- a health assessment for people aged 45 – 49 years who are at risk of developing chronic disease
- a type 2 diabetes risk evaluation for people aged 40-49 years with a high risk of developing type 2 diabetes as determined by the Australian Type 2 Diabetes Risk Assessment Tool
- a health assessment for people aged 75 years and older
- a comprehensive medical assessment for permanent residents of residential aged care facilities
- a health assessment for people with an intellectual disability
- a health assessment for refugees and other humanitarian entrants.

Event details

Date: Thursday 21 September 2023

Time: 1.00 - 1.40pm

Online: Via Zoom

Registration link: <https://bit.ly/3NUO81x>

Enquiries: Josie Terron (03) 9046 0300 events@emphn.org.au