

STI Management in General Practice

RACGP Activity Number: 121207

The Maternity GP Liaison Unit is pleased to invite GPs to an update on the identification and management of sexually transmissible infections.

Presenter: Dr Stephanie Bond – Monash Health

Stephanie is a Senior Obstetrics and Gynaecology Registrar with a special interest in sexual and reproductive health. She has completed training at the Melbourne Sexual Health Centre.

Wednesday 7th March, 2018
Monash Medical Centre
Lecture Theatre 2

Registration & Light Supper: 6:30pm

Session starts: 7:00pm

Concluding: 8:30pm

Learning Outcomes:

- Identify patients at high risk of STIs and outline recommended investigations and management
- Discuss notification and different options for contact tracing
- Include chlamydia screening appropriately as part of routine pregnancy care

RSVP: Friday 2nd March, 2018

E: josie.ciotta@monashhealth.org or P: 9594 6220

Approved for: Three RACGP Category 2 points

(Attendance at this event will earn One 'pregnancy related care point' towards Monash Health Shared Care Accreditation)