

21 April 2020

POLAR training and Digital Health update

How to use POLAR in your practice, a training opportunity for practice managers, practice staff, practice nurses and general practitioners.

Event details

Jason Ferriggi and Shane Lowe from Outcome Health will be facilitating an interactive POLAR training session, which will include new features, a new report (CVD Report) and Walrus Tool.

Graham De-Jong from East Doncaster Medical Group will provide a practice manager's perspective on POLAR.

This event is suitable for all levels of users.

Bring your usability questions for the interactive POLAR sessions throughout the morning and Q&A.

Learning outcomes

- understanding the role of data tools in general practice
- use POLAR to generate patient searches for implementing Quality Improvement Activities (PIP QI)
- data quality, why is it important?
