Mental Health and AOD

Collaborative relationships and successful commissioning

Market development workshop for allied health providers

Commissioning for the mental health and alcohol and other drugs sector continues to evolve. This workshop aims to provide allied health providers with the tools to navigate funding and tendering opportunities with Eastern Melbourne PHN and other government organisations, develop the capacity to form successful strategic partnerships, and acquire the tools to succeed in a commissioning environment.

Event overview

Join us for a workshop that aims to explore the commissioning process, and provide tools to build your capacity to develop collaborative relationships and become a successful tenderer.

There will also be opportunities to network with other providers and potential collaborators.

This workshop will be presented by the firm Grant Thornton.

Learning outcomes include an understanding of:

- Current commissioning environment
- Developing strategic partnerships and consortiums
- Submitting effective responses to funding and tender opportunities
- Requirements of successful contracted providers
- Key learnings from consortium success stories
