The good side of social media

For GPs, Practice Managers, Nurses & Staff

Discover how your practice can benefit from social media, and hear updates on POLAR, My Health Record and electronic referrals. An optional networking and discussion session for Practice Managers is available prior to the event.

Presenters

Will Williams is the Digital Marketing Manager at 1st Group, a Patient Engagement Group. He has wide marketing experience and a passion for helping practices connect with patients at the patient's time of need.

Jason Ferriggi is the Chief Information Officer at Outcome Health and architect of the data extraction and reporting tool, POLAR.

Topics

- Discover how social media is already impacting healthcare across the country
- Learn key methods and tools for how to engage your patients and audience across social media platforms
- Discover the three cornerstones of appropriate healthcare content on social media
- Discuss key areas to be careful of on social media and how to stay out of trouble
- Learn how to make better use of POLAR in your practice
