Implementing the new Advance Care Planning legislation

For Health Professionals

This event provides a valuable opportunity to hear from the Office of the Public Advocate on the Medical Treatment Planning and Decisions Act 2016. The changes came into effect on 12 March 2018 and provide a framework for making decisions about medical treatment when people do not have capacity to make their own decisions.

Presenters

Sonia Gardiner
Senior Medical Advisor
Office of the Public Advocate

Dr Precious McGuire
HealthPathways Melbourne GP Clinical Editor
Eastern Melbourne PHN

Topics

- The legislative changes that came into effect on 12 March 2018
- Validity of legal appointments made prior to the changes
- Advance care planning under the new Act
- The medical consent process under the new Act for a patient who does not have decision-making capacity to make medical treatment decisions
