

Trans and Gender Diverse in Community Health (TGDICH)

TGD Health for GPs and Prescribing Clinicians Training Course

A free course (fully funded by the Victorian Department of Health), CPD-approved by ACRRM & RACGP, designed for General Practitioners and prescribing clinicians in Victoria. Subscribe to our Humanitix event page (below) to get updates about the next training/ register for the next one.

Whole GP Clinic Training

Free training designed for GP Clinics in Victoria to be trained in Trans and Gender Diverse (TGD) Affirmative Practice. At least one clinician in the clinic must who have completed the GP Training course (above).

Observerships at THH Equinox Clinic

Half day Observerships are available at Equinox Clinic throughout the year. This is an opportunity to witness GP's who have expert knowledge in TGD health care. Clinician must who have completed the GP Training course (above).

Community of Practice

An online, multidisciplinary, case-based learning forum for Victorian general practitioners and prescribing clinicians working with TGD people. Session happen quarterly from 6:30-7:30pm on a Tuesday evening.

thorneharbour.org/tgdich

education@thorneharbour.org

<https://events.humanitix.com/host/thorne-harbour-health>

TGDICH Info

Community of Practice

